Racial Justice Sunday

This Sunday, 1 February, is Racial Justice Sunday and the theme this year is: "Whoever loves God must also love his brother" (1 John 4:21): Promoting Racial Justice in our Parishes. Click here to watch a short video message from Bishop Paul McAleenan, from the Bishops' Conference of England and Wales: "In the family of the Church and in society, there are people from every nation and race. All are important and wonderfully made. The central commandment is to love. True love recognises the value of everyone." Let us today commit to love our neighbours from every nation and every race.

Children from St John's School

This weekend we have the great joy of welcoming some children from St John's School, who will be taking a leading role at the 11.30am Mass - welcoming, reading the Scriptures and the Prayer of the Faithful, bringing up the offertory gifts and playing some of the music.

Knitting for the Catholic Children's Society

Do you love knitting? Over the last few years, parishioners from a number of parishes across the diocese, including the Assumption of Our Lady in Torquay and Our Lady of Lourdes and St Cecilia in Blandford Forum, have knitted beautiful baby blankets, cardigans, hats, booties, mittens and teddy bears. Thanks to these kind, wonderful knitters, the CCSP has posted many small bundles of knitted garments to families who apply for an Essential Grant because they don't have the funds to pay for some of the basic essentials for their babies, such as cots and mattresses, single and double pushchairs, baby monitors, baby clothes, travel systems, highchairs, car seats, sterilisers, electric breast pumps, changing bags and bottles, nappies and wipes. The Society has received some wonderful feedback from parents.

If you enjoy knitting and would like to help families of all faiths and none, please do get in touch with our Essential Grants Manager by calling 01364 645424 or by emailing vicki.dunstone@ccsplymouth.org.uk.

Dilexi Te – The Burning Heart of the Church's Mission

Join Caritas and CAFOD this Lent, on 21 February, 11.00am-4.00pm, Buckfast Abbey Conference Centre, for a diocesan day to reflect on Pope Leo XIV's powerful Apostolic Exhortation, Dilexi Te, which calls us to return to the Gospel and reminds us that love of the poorest of our sisters and brothers is part of the "burning heart of the Church's mission". Bishop Nicholas will open the day and also close the day by presiding at Mass. Click here to register or email: caritas@prcdtr.org.uk.
